Foot Ball Banquet For Belle Glade & Pahokee Teams Scheduled Dec. 8

Members of the Belle Glade and Pahokee football teams will be feted at a banquet scheduled for next Friday night, December 8, in the Pahokee school cafeteria, according to information released this week by A. B. Mathis, chairman of the committee for arrangements of the Pahokee Lions club.

Four Lions clubs — Canal Point, Pahokee, Belle Glade and South Bay — will be official hosts for the occasion, Mr. Mathis said.

An outstanding athletic figure of South Florida has been invited to be the speaker. He is Larry "Hank" Slay, athletic director of Dan McCarty High School at Fort Pierce. County Commissioner Paul Rardin has been invited to act as master of ceremonies at the banquet.

The banquet next Friday night will be the first affair of its kind sponsored by the four Lions clubs in the past four years. Officials of the clubs are anxious that it become an established annual affair.

Each Lion will pay for his own meal and the clubs have enough money left out of their foot ball clinic to pay for the players' meals. The food will be prepared by Mrs. Stanley at the school cafeteria in Pahokee and served by the home economic girls. The menu will consist of roast beef, locally grown sweet corn and beans and other delicacies.

Musical Program At Next PTA Meet

The December meeting of the Canal Point Parents Teachers Association will be held Monday evening, December 4 at 8:00 o'clock in the school auditorium, with Mrs. W. E. McCall, presiding.

Mrs. Ruth Snyder, Music Teacher, has planned a Christmas Musical program to be presented by students from the first through the eighth grades.

Refreshments will not be served at this meeting.

Chief Suggests You Watch Pocketbook

Police Chief Leon Guthrie of Pahokee suggests that ladies who go downtown shopping keep close tabs on their pocketbooks. He pointed out that sneak thieves may reach into a parked car and take a light fold or pocketbook. So, it might be a good idea to take the Chief's advice and watch your pocketbook at all times.

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Justice of Jupiter, were out-of-town guests at a family Thanksgiving Dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bush and children in Pahokee. Other guests included her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tillman of Canal Point, and his son, Sidney Tillman and son Garry of Miami.

South Bay Bars Will Close Sundays

Bars will be closed in South Bay all day Sundays, effective Dec. 1. Action taken at a special City Council meeting Monday calls for all bars to remain closed from 4 a. m. Sunday, until Monday.

Under the present law, bars could open Sundays at 1 p. m. and remain open until 4 a. m. Monday.

Defeated was an ordinance, proposed by merchants, to allow sale of malt beverages in restaurants accommodating 40 or more persons and serving full course meals. Mayor F. W. Kelly Jr., cast the deciding vote.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boyette of Canal Point spent Thanksgiving with their relatives in Vero Beach.

U. S. Sugar Corp. Building 16 Inch Water Line From Lake To New Bryant Mill

Workmen are busy this week laying a 16-inch water line from the Bryant Sugar House site to Lake Okeechobee to service the new mill and surrounding area of the United States Sugar Corporation at Bryant.

No definite figures have been released by the company in regard to the cost of the installation but

Mayaca Groves Shipping Oranges

Mayaca Groves at Port Mayaca are busy preparing shipments of fancy finest quality Indian River tree ripened juicy navel oranges. They also are shipping pink grapefruit, southern candies, coconut patties, pralines, jellies and pecan nut assortments.

Mayaca Groves, owned and operated by Bessemer Properties, have through the years won an enviable reputation as growers and shippers of unusually fine citrus products. If you want to send something nice to that friend up north, just drop by Mayaca Groves or give them a call. You'll be happy with results.

It's Christmastime Again In Pahokee

Workmen were busy this week stringing Christmas lights in the shopping district of Pahokee. Each year this special addition to the lighting system of the city adds to the Yuletide atmosphere.

SPECIAL SERVICE

Canal Point Thanksgiving Services were held Thursday Morning in the Canal Point Methodist Church. Rev. Robert Shelley, pastor, brought the special Thanksgiving message with the choir expressing their gratitude in song.

Pahokee Is Looking To Future Needs

Pahokee, city council is looking to the future growth of Pahokee and making arrangements to provide services to those who would cause the town to grow.

At Monday night's meeting the council bought 100 water meters at $28.15 each from Badger Meter and Manufacturing Company of Milwaukee.

The council okehed a proposal by City Attorney Ralph Johnson in continuation of efforts by the city to obtain from Trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund use of lands in Section 19 for a rockpit, garbage dump and sewage disposal area. The lands are in the western part of the city, northeast of the airport.

The proposal, in which the city is not offering any money, is understood to involve a number of things, including restriction on the city to the three uses only. Efforts to obtain use of the property have been underway about a year.

Council authorized a $200 donation to Animal Rescue League.

Elks Memorial To Be Held Sun., Dec. 3

Elks Lodge No. 1638 of Pahokee will hold Memorial Services at 4:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, December 3 in Elks Hall, according to James Vann and Robert O. Lampi, members of the committee in charge.

Messrs. Vann and Lampi announced that the speaker of the Memorial Services this year will be the Honorable Russell M. McIntosh, Judge of the Criminal Court of Record of Palm Beach County. Music will be furnished by a vocal group from the Pahokee High School Glee Club under the direction of Miss Ellen Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Echols Hurt In Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Echols of Canal Point are patients of the Everglades Memorial Hospital suffering from multiple injuries received in an early Friday Morning automobile accident at Pelican Lake. Ralph Echols, his brother, of Naples and sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Cammack of Ft. Myers were Sunday visitors at the hospital along with other relatives in Canal Point.

Council For Blind Will Accept Money

The Florida Council for the Blind informed the County Commission this week it would be glad to accept the profits from vending machines in operation in county office buildings.

The board learned some time ago that the Council is the only organization in the state allowed to operate vendors in public buildings for profit.

The board asked Attorney Harry Johnston to contact the Council to determine if it would accept profits from softdrinks, cracker and cigar machines now in operation in some public building locations.

Miss Cyndy Friend Member 'Flying High'

Miss Cyndy Friend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Friend of Pahokee and a junior at Florida State University, Tallahassee, has been selected a member of "Flying High" FSU's famed troupe of gymnasts. "Flying High" was featured on the CBS TV sports spectacular last May, and again in September. One out of five students who make application to join the troupe are accepted and once in, a student must maintain a "C" average scholastic grade in order to stay in and travel with the troupe.

Jobs For Teen-agers Should Be Screened

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. — "Teen-agers who soon start their annual hunt for holiday jobs are not concerned with legal aspects, but each employer must know what work he can assign to the youngsters", an official of the U. S. Department of Labor said here today.

Sterling B. Williams, director of the Wage-and-Hour and Public Contracts Division regional office at Birmingham, pointed out that Federal Child-Labor laws cover boys and girls working in commerce, in the production of goods for commerce, and in many retail stores. They prohibit any such youngster under 16 from holding any job during hours when schools in his home area are in session.

"On school days the 14-and-15 year olds are limited to working three hours a day and 18 hours a week. When schools close for vacation these same boys and girls may work as much as eight hours a day or 40 hours a week so long as the duties are scheduled between 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. The youngsters may work as sales clerks and office employees in business places where employees are covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act," Williams said.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Vasey of Vero Beach, were the weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boyette of Canal Point.

The year 1964 will see the United States Sugar Corporation, the Glades' first successful sugar cane growing and processing concern, with a total of 27,000 acres of cane growing in this the eastern division of the company to be ground at the new Bryant mill.

With a planting of 4,100 acres of cane this fall, the Corporation expects to have 16,456 acres ready for harvest in the fall of 1962.

A record was broken recently by the Clewiston mill which ordinarily grinds 5,000 tons of cane daily when it ground more than 7,000 tons in a 24-hour period.

Scout Prospects Discussed By Lions

The local Lions Club members were told Monday evening of the Scout Work and the need to further the Scout movement in Canal Point by Lewis Mims of Pahokee, Official Chairman of Glades District, member of the Gulf Stream Council on the Coast and Assistant Scout Master of the Pahokee Troops. P. A. Slonaker introduced M. E. Ludlow, Belle Glade, Chairman of the Organization and Extension for the Glades District, who offered his services to Canal Point. In their talk they pointed out that Canal Point is the only Community in the Glades area without Scout Troops.

J. G. Weeks, President, presided over the business meeting. Lions A. B. Mathis and James Harry Wilkinson of Pahokee announced the Football Banquet to be held Friday night, December 8 in the Pahokee School Cafeteria.

Joe Cherry, was inducted into the club by A. R. Harrington. Five visitors from the Okeechobee Lions Club were guests.

Decorations Will Be Put On Exhibit

The Sodabusters Garden Club has joined the Pahokee Garden Club as a co-sponsor of the Christmas Decorative Arrangements Exhibit which is to be held in the Woman's Club building Friday, Dec. 8, from 4 to 10 p. m. Mrs. Betty Hatton and Mrs. Barbara Wilder have been appointed to represent the Sodabusters on the joint triclub committee in charge of the exhibit, which has Mrs. Jess M. Elliott as chairman.

This exhibit, free to the public will feature original and distinctive Christmas decorations made by local club members. It supersedes the traditional Holiday House project sponsored in the past during the Christmas holidays by the Pahokee Garden Club.

Mrs. Jim Higgins and children of West Palm Beach were holiday house guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson in Canal Point.

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to $2\frac{1}{2}\%$ for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra $\frac{1}{2}\%$ from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic $\frac{1}{2}\%$ increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

YOU SAVE MORE THAN MONEY WITH

State Is Hoping For More Tourists

TALLAHASSEE — The Florida Development Commission hopes to cause thousands of northerners to "Obey that Florida impulse, toss a few things in a bag and head for the Sunshine State."

When cold winds howl and the snow begins to pile up folks in cold bound areas will be greeted with appealing advertisements headed "Wouldn't You Rather be in Florida" with suitable illustrations and text extolling the charms and advantages this state offers.

Colorful posters will further emphasize the appeal in an all-out campaign to step up Florida's tourist business this winter.

The campaign is being handled for the Commission by the Louis Benito Advertising Agency of Tampa and promises to be one of the best and most effective in the state's history.

We Don't Smile Enough, Survey Shows

TALLAHASSEE — A research project of the Florida Development Commission has come up with an unflattering conclusion about Floridians: We don't smile enough.

Results of the researchers show that Florida has been losing tourists because some tourists are coming to the Sunshine State only once. And this fact has resulted from complaints, compiled by the researchers, that show one visit to Florida is enough for some tourists.

Some of the complaints are: Not enough picnic areas; beer to expensive; need more accurate information on motel prices; too many bad roads and speed traps; and not enough friendly smiles by residents.

The tourist industry-backed organization, the Governor's Florida Tourism Steering Committee, is trying to do something about all this. Here is the committee's advice:

When you see: (1) A convention badge, (2) An out-of-state license tag, (3) A U-drive-it car or (4) A pale face smile!

Pvt. Homer Latham of Ft. Benning, Ga., spent the Thanksgiving day and weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Latham in Canal Point. Thanksgiving Dinner guests at the Latham home included, Homer, Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Audie Hooks and daughter, Jo-nelle of Clewiston; and Mr. and Mrs. James Latham and little daughter, Lisa of Cocoa.

DO YOU KNOW?

APPROXIMATELY ONE OF EVERY FOUR VISITORS IS SEEING FLORIDA FOR THE FIRST TIME! YOU CAN MAKE SURE THEY CARRY HOME A GOOD FIRST IMPRESSION OF FLORIDA AND ITS FRIENDLY PEOPLE.

GREET THEM WITH A SMILE!
— GOVERNOR'S FLORIDA TOURISM STEERING COMMITTEE

SUNDAY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Scruggs, Sr., of Runyon had as their Sunday guests three of their children and their families also his nephew and family: Mr. and Mrs. Arnold J. Scruggs and children of Canal Point; Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Scruggs, Jr., and family of Belle Glade; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark and children of Miami; also Mr. and Mrs. William G. Scruggs and children of Miami.

Miss Cyndy Friend, of F. S. U., Tallahassee, was accompanied home for the holidays by Rupert Mock, Miss Edwina Humphries all of Pahokee and Johnny Smith of Canal Point.

Adoption Cases Show Upward Climb

JACKSONVILLE — The Children's Home Society of Florida has handled more adoption cases in the last 10 months than in any similar period in its history, according to the Society's president, William H. Jeter, of Jacksonville.

Last year Jeter said the Society placed 396 children in permanent adoptive homes. The 1961 case load to date indicates that about 450 children will find permanent homes through the Society by January.

Mrs. Walter Cross of Canal Point is a patient in Everglades Memorial Hospital, Pahokee.

10 days after his inauguration as the 35th President of the United States.

Twenty years ago, in the dark, uneasy days before Pearl Harbor, the Minute Man of Concord, timeless symbol of our Nation's determination to defend its freedom, emerged as the emblem of the U. S. Savings Bonds Program. When war came, the Minute Man became the rallying force behind the huge and overwhelmingly successful effort to back our fighting men with War Bonds.

In this, the 20th anniversary year of Savings Bonds, the Minute Man of Concord calls all Americans to an unremitting effort to help preserve our peace and freedom, threatened by forces more powerful and resourceful than those we faced in 1941. Though this effort will take many forms, one way open to all is the continued investment in Shares in America, U. S. Savings Bonds, by "citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life."

"Where you are a stranger but once".

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

Spiritual understanding of God's creation helps man meet everyday problems. This is a leading point of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator" to be heard at Christian Science churches Sunday.

From the Bible will be read the account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the centurion's son (Matt. 8).

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this (p. 313): "Jesus of Nazareth was the most scientific man that ever trod the globe. He plunged beneath the material surface of things, and found the spiritual cause."

The Golden Text is from Acts (15): "Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world."

SEBING VISITORS

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Handley and children of Sebring were Thanksgiving Dinner guests of her Parents, Col. and Mrs. W. S. Evans at Cypress Lodge, Port Mayaca. Dr. Handley returned home that evening. Mrs. Handley and children remained with her parents through Sunday.

Adventists Plan For New Academy

FOREST CITY — Ministers and officers from 65 Florida Seventh Day Adventist churches met here recently to approve plans for the rebuilding of Forest Lake Academy.

More than 700 delegates to the conference were given detailed information about the plan by Florida Conference president H. H. Schmidt and H. F. Roll, conference treasurer.

Members of the church will be asked to make one pledge toward local development projects with 25 percent of the pledge going to the conference.

Approval was given for the spending of approximately one million dollars on the Forest Lake Academy, other projects including the Greater Miami Academy will bring the total program to around $3 million. The conference may employ a professional fund raiser for the operation.

Mrs. Meg Graham and children, Joe, Dianne, Susan and Melinda of Pahokee were Thanksgiving Holiday visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Williams in Homestead.

The Farm Front

Florida cattlemen are to be commended for the fine co-operation they have given our State and Federal regulatory personnel in the recent fever tick eradication program.

Without the wholehearted co-operation of livestock owners, it would be mighty difficult to control or wipe out disease and pests which threaten the industry from time to time.

Because systematic dipping and inspection are the only means known today for wiping out fever ticks, the demands made on cattlemen in infested areas during eradication are much more onerous than those of the screwworm program. In the latter, the sterile flies did most of the work of wiping out the native fly population. But, to get rid of ticks, cattle must be rounded up, dipped and inspected every 14 to 21 days for a year after the last ticks have been found.

Nevertheless, in Florida's fourth tick eradication program, which ended in October and required about 16 months to complete, there was no hesitation on the part of the industry to get the job done.

It wasn't always so. From some of our old-timers you'll hear hair-raising tales of cattlemen's resistance to early tick eradication efforts in Florida — "dynamiting" of dipping vats — death threats to inspectors—even shootings and killings.

The first attack on the fever tick—a 15 state program, including Florida—started in 1907 and took 36 years to complete, ending in 1943. Since then there were two more, 1945-50 and 1957-58.

By today's standards, Florida's beef cattle industry in the early 1900's was a pretty sorry thing. The animals were mostly "scrub" varieties, undernourished and subject to many diseases and pests. In 1920 our beef cattle population was estimated at only 766,000 head. Today it's around 1 1/2 million.

Cattle raising was a rugged business 50 years ago and, on the whole, the cattlemen of those days were a rugged lot. They didn't realize what disease control and eradication could do for them—so they opposed it.

We expect to be starting soon on a statewide program in Florida, in co-operation with the Federal government, to eradicate hog cholera. To be successful, this effort will require widespread co-operation by swine raisers. They benefitted greatly, as did other livestock owners, from the successful screwworm eradication program of 1958-59. I know our hog raisers are fully aware of the threat cholera poses to their operations. They have indicated they want an eradication program, and I'm glad to know that we have funds available and are ready to go.

To wipe out hog cholera may take five years. However, the money, time and effort required to do the job should be an excellent investment. The disease can wipe out an unprotected herd almost overnight. For a hog that comes down with Cholera, no cure is known at this time.

Because we still have cholera in the U. S., our pork is barred from several foreign countries. Once we have rid the nation of cholera our pork exports can be increased, our hog raisers will be relieved of a deadly threat to their business and the year-to-year cost of "living with" cholera will become a thing of the past.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD — U. S. Senator George A. Smathers was recipient of the Florida Fruit & Vegetable Association's 1961 Distinguished Service Award. Senator Smathers was cited for a long record of distinguished service to Florida's Agriculture, and particularly for his work on transportation and competition matters. The award was made during the 18th annual convention of the Association at Miami Beach recently.

Rayburn's Death Spurs Cancer Drive

Because Speaker of the House, the Honorable Sam Rayburn, was stricken and died of cancer, American Cancer Society offices throughout the state are receiving an increasing number of inquiries, from Florida admirers of the late statesman, in regard to making personal contributions gifts in his memory, to the Society's established Cancer Memorial Fund.

The announcement was made yesterday, by a Society Spokesman, who explained that all contributions are placed in the Society's general fund and are used to further support year-round cancer control programs of public education, scientific research and patient services.

He pointed out that many Floridians contribute to the American Cancer Society Cancer Memorial Fund each year. Gifts are usually given in memory of close friends or relatives, although an increasing number of contributions are being made as tokens of respect to prominent persons such as: the baseball great Ty Cobb; veteran film actor Gary Cooper; former Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles; Richard Skelton, son of comedian Red Skelton; Sports greats, Babe Ruth and Babe Didrikson Zaharias; Broadway lyricist Oscar Hammerstein and many others.

When a contribution is made, either to a local County Unit or to the organization's state headquarters, the gift is recorded and placed in a permanent file. Without disclosure of the amount given, an appropriate card, in the name of the donor, is sent to the family of the deceased. The donor, in turn, receives an acknowledgement receipt which is assurance that the contribution has been made and will be used to help support the Society's year-round cancer control programs. Checks should be made out to the American Cancer Society. Official receipts of contributions are recognized for tax exemption purposes.

Pink Flamingoes Attract New Yorkers

TALLAHASSEE — Ten pink flamingoes from Sarasota had 12,000 New Yorkers staring at them as they strutted in their cage recently at the Florida Showcase in Rockefeller Center, the Florida Development Commission said today.

The visitor count was the largest for a single day since the Showcase opened last February.

Wendell Jarrard, chairman-director of the Commission, said 12,139 guests registered at the Florida exhibition and "people were lined up outside along 49th Street many times during the day."

The longstemmed birds from Sarasota Jungle Gardens are one of a number of "live" attractions to be featured at the Showcase during the state's big winter travel push, Jarrard said. Others will include a Seminole Indian family, a trained bird act, sea turtles, exotic flowers, reindeer and bathing beauties.

Jarrard said TV appearances for a number of the attractions have been scheduled on the Today Show, Captain Kangaroo and the New York Calendar Show and some would receive "wide publicity" in major cities en route to New York.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Mrs. C. B. Jones and son Alton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jones and family in Belle Glade for Thanksgiving dinner. Attending the dinner, also were Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Jordan, Sr., and Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Jordan, Jr., and baby all of Miami and the David Jones family of Gainesville. The Thanksgiving family Dinner has become a traditional event in the lives of the Jones and Jordans as this was the sixth year all families have gathered in Belle Glade for this occasion.

Harry Kirk Elarbee Christened Sunday

Little Harry Kirk Elarbee, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brooks Elarbee, was Christened at the morning service of the Canal Point Methodist Church Sunday with Rev. Robert Shelley, pastor officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rardin were chosen as his God-parents.

Miss Samilee Lanham of Miami spent the Thanksgiving Holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Lanham in Canal Point.
